

1 Ends

Mission

RNs and NPs are leaders in contributing to a healthy population.

These results are worth the current annual membership fee.

Rev Date : 10/24/2019    Rev No : 12    Ref No : 72788

1.1 Profession-led Regulation

Accountable, effective, transparent profession-led regulation in the public interest.

Rev Date : 12/17/2015    Rev No : 3    Ref No : 61592

1.2 Excellence in Professional Practice

Excellence in Professional Practice

Rev Date : 12/17/2015    Rev No : 2    Ref No : 61593

1.2.1 Individual and Family-Centred Care

RNs and NPs practice safe, competent, ethical, and culturally appropriate individual and family-centred care.

Rev Date : 10/3/2019    Rev No : 3    Ref No : 72788

1.2.2 Legislated Scope

RNs and NPs understand their role and practice within their full legislated scope.

Rev Date : 10/3/2019    Rev No : 4    Ref No : 72789

1.2.3 Primary Health Care

RNs and NPs integrate Primary Health Care (PHC) principles into all practice settings.

Rev Date : 10/3/2019    Rev No : 1    Ref No : 67762

1.2.4 Demonstrate Nursing Leadership

RNs and NPs demonstrate nursing leadership.

Rev Date : 10/3/2019    Rev No : 2    Ref No : 72789

1.3 Integral Partners in Health

RNs and NPs are integral partners in health.

Rev Date : 10/3/2019    Rev No : 3    Ref No : 72789

1.3.1 Articulation of Roles

RNs and NPs articulate and demonstrate their role(s).

Rev Date : 10/3/2019    Rev No : 4    Ref No : 72789

1.3.2 Advocating for Evidence-informed Practice

RNs and NPs advocate for evidence-informed practice.

1.3.3 Influencing Public Policy

RNs and NPs are leaders in influencing healthy public policy, including seniors health, mental health, and Indigenous health.